INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPILING FORM ODR

1. This form alongwith form ODA (in duplicate) should be submitted to the concerned Regional Office of the Exchange Control Department, Reserve Bank of India, immediately after making the remittance.
2. Investments involving capitalisation of exports should be reported in this form within 15 days of the exports made by Indian Party, The custom certified copy of the invoice should also be enclosed to form ODR.

3. Foreign Currency (FCY) should be as per the SWIFT code.
4. The 13 digit Identification No. issued by the Reserve Bank should invariably be quoted (except in the case of fresh investment under the Automatic Route which will be allotted subsequently) in respect of all investments routed through authorised dealer at item III(b)/IV (B)(a).
5. In case the investment is made by more than one Indian company in the same JV/WOS, the details of the remittances effected by other Indian companies through their respective authorised dealers (based on the certificates issued by the latter) and exports capitalised by other Indian companies should also be incorporated in this form with suitable remarks.
6. In case the Indian party is successful in winning the contract through bidding or tender procedure, the form ODR should be forwarded to the Reserve Bank immediately after effecting the final remittance to acquire an overseas company. Amounts remitted earlier towards Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) should also be included in the amount under report with suitable remarks.
